Who are the BACCN?

The British Association of Critical Care Nurses is one of the largest UK membership organisations dedicated to the promotion of excellence in the provision and delivery of critical care nursing; through mutual support, education and research.

We aim to provide opportunities and services for our members which support personal and professional development and promote the art and science of critical care nursing. With increasing UK membership, we have grown and developed through the hard work and dedication of our members, regional committees and National Board.

Key Benefits:

- Free BACCN Journal 'Nursing in Critical Care' - 6 times per year (RRP £66)
- Reduced rates at all BACCN study days and conferences
- Access members-only awards and grants
- Regular e-newsletters keeping you up-to-date with what's new
- Support for your views and concerns at a national level – we lobby on your behalf!
- Be part of a nationally recognised professional organisation
- Benefit from networking with other critical care nurses in your region
- BACCN website – share in the members-only section, including members message board
- Keep up to date with current practice and new developments – enhance your career!

It's easy to join us...

simply complete the membership form and send it to us, visit www.baccn.org, call us on 0844 800 8843 or email us at baccn@baccn.org.

The Direct Debit Guarantee

This guarantee is offered by all Banks and Building Societies that take part in the Direct Debit scheme. The efficiency and security of the Scheme is monitored and protected by your own Bank or Building Society.

If the amounts to be paid or the payment dates change, you will be told of this in advance by at least 14 days as agreed.

If an error is made by the BACCN or your Bank or Building Society, you are guaranteed a full and immediate refund from your branch of the amount paid. You can cancel a direct debit at any time by writing to your bank or Building Society. Please also send a copy of your letter to us.
